THE PREZ SEZ

November, 2017

Good morning to everyone!

As I am sitting here in our home looking out the back door I am remembering November 2015 when you as a club nominated me to be the president of COCA. What an honor that was. As I am thinking about the past 24 months and remembering where we were and thinking about where we are at, I am so excited to think about our future and everything you in our club have accomplished.

November club meeting will be our time to have bi-annual officer nominations. As Bill and I will be stepping out of the President and Vice President positions, I am excited to think of the future and the leaders you select. I believe the sky is the limit of what COCA can do. Please take time to think about who you will choose and who you will nominate to take over.

To finish up the calendar year there are a two upcoming events. Please take time to add them to your calendar.

I want to take time to recognize our military veterans. Thank you for your service to this great nation. On November 10th COCA will be driving in the Midwest City Veterans Day Parade. Please plan to be a part.

Our COCA Christmas Party will be Saturday December 9th at the Embassy Suites. Like last year, I am sure we will have a fun afternoon of events. Please make plans to be there.

So for now find some curvy roads and keep it between the lines. Drive safe, be safe!

Central Oklahoma Corvair Association

The October meeting of COCA was held at Swadley's Bar-B-Que at 7:00 PM on the 12th of October 2017. Vice-President Ashlock standing in for President Ergenbright called the meeting to order. We had two new members at this meeting, Heidi and David Clamp. We also had one visitor, George Enriquez. George has a 1965 Corsa project car. Liz Capron made a motion to accept the minutes and the motion was seconded by Richard Law. The motion carried.

Treasurer's Report- Treasurer Ken Drye passed out the monthly report on the club's financial state and went over the figures as they stand for the month. Pat Silver made the motion to accept the report and it was seconded by Eldon Stevens. The motion carried.

Old Business- The Round-up was a resounding success. We had 87 Corvairs in attendance and many compliments were handed out by our guests. Everything from how smooth the registration went to the well run valve cover races. There were many people that stated the hotel was one of the best venues they had ever been at for a Round-up. Ann read a letter penned by James Ergenbright that thanked the many people involved in this year's successful Round-up.

New Business- Pat Silver made a correction to the date for the Tuna later this month. It had been listed as October 17th but that date was incorrect and the Tuna will be held on October 21st at Terry Kalp's garage. The Wichita Club is looking for a volunteer to deliver the valve cover race track to Wichita for next year's Round-up. Anyone interested can contact James, Bill or Pat for more information and the destination address.

Bill Announced that the Veteran's Day parade would take place on November 10th. A show of hands indicated at least 6 vehicles would be on hand for the event.

Mineral Wells was discussed and the members going that want to travel as a group will come up with a meeting location among themselves for the trip to the event. There appeared to be at least a half dozen participants for the event.

There are several options open to the club for the annual Christmas Party. One option is Dinner at the Embassy Suites where it was held last year. Another option is James and Ann's property and having a pot luck dinner. Anyone with any other suggestions are asked to get with James or Bill as soon as possible because Christmas Party dates are quick to fill-up.

January will be the club elections. Offices open for voting will be the President, Vice- President, Secretary and board member positions. Nominations will be taken at next month's meeting.

Door Prizes- There were 33 members and guests at the meeting and there were four Corvairs driven to the meeting. Jim Gailey won the door prize for driving his car. Door prize tickets were sold and the winners selected their prizes. David C. thanked everyone for their cash donations leading up to the Round-up. Without the members support there would not have been nearly as many wonderful give-away items. He also stated that there was approximately $110.00 left over and was looking for options on how to utilize the money. Jim Gailey made a motion to put the surplus to use for the Christmas Party. The motion was seconded by Delia and the motion carried. Liz Capron made a motion to adjourn and that was seconded by Debbie Nels. The meeting was adjourned.
